

In 2011, to celebrate the presence of our family's descendents in Saint-Emilion as wine estate owners for 400 years from 1610 to 2010, we decided to honour:

- Nelly GURCHY who founded Laroze in 1882 and
- Andrée Gurchy, MESLIN's spouse (her grand-daughter) who took the estate over and worked tirelessly to ensure its perenity, so that she could hand it down to her children.

Without her, Laroze would not have existed or would no longer exist today.

By launching Lady Laroze, a Saint-Emilion Grand Cru in 2009, we pay homage to these women.

Lady Laroze is vinified in the same conditions as Château Laroze. This wine grows on Château Laroze's 27-hectare (67-acre) terroir. The vines embrace the Château.

Lady Laroze's pure, fresh aromas accompany smooth harmony on the palate. Keeping potential: about eight years.

Appellation : Saint-Emilion Grand Cru
Location: at the foot of the hill, 1,5 km north-west from the village of Saint-Emilion.
Soil: Silica on a layer of clay
Blend: 70% de Merlot, 30% de Cabernet franc
Manual harvest
Stainless steel and concrete tanks
Aged in one year old barrels and in tanks for 16 months
Average production : 15 000 bottles

Manager : Guy Meslin
Technical manager : Olivier Lesur

Owners : Mme A.Meslin and children

TECHNICAL SHEET